

Please leave the Indiana Telephone Privacy law alone. It has improved my time at home considerably because I am not bombarded with telemarketers. I used to receive 3-4 per day now I receive maybe one a month. I love it and would be very disappointed if it was changed in any way. If anything I would like it stronger, more restrictive. I did not appreciate receiving unsolicited recordings related to the elections.

Thanks for your time,
Jerry